

Social Change in the Solwezi Region, Northwestern Zambia, and Elsewhere

Master students in anthropology and African studies
Guided field course 2017/2018 to Zambia w/ Rita Kesselring

Wednesday, 30 May 2018, 16:15-18h

Institute of Social Anthropology, Münsterplatz 19, 4051 Basel

The presentations will be followed by an Apéro. All welcome!

Mbaraka Matitu Salaula Retailing Practices

Monika Huber Maize

Aurel Everwijn The Social Space of a Carpenter's Workshop

Misato Kimura Where do I belong as an Ethnographer? Power and access in a refugee camp

Michèle Monnier Aboriginal Art in Alice Springs, Australia: behind the scenes of an Aboriginal art gallery

Anna Karsko Creating and Imagining Music in Solwezi, Zambia

Carole Martin "We cannot stick to one language": language use in multilingual Solwezi

Julia Hohn Following the Water: household practices and urban distribution politics in Solwezi

Deborah Oliveira Community and Faith at Bethel Evangelical Church, Solwezi

Jessica Näf Blasts, Cracks and Uranium: the perception of environmental degradation in Kakaindo community, Kalumbila District

