

Wednesday Colloquium

Autumn Term 2019 Seminar Room, Münsterplatz 19

Date	Title	Presenter
September 25	Cities of Entanglements: Johannesburg and Maputo through Ethnographic Comparison [fresh from the press].	Barbara Heer, Basel, Biel
October 2	Is a Theory of Anarchy Possible? Some anthropological remarks on acephalous societies and their future.	Till Förster, Basel
October 9	No class, see November 8
October 16	Bricks, Caretakers and Reciprocity: House- and home-making in urbanising Northwestern Zambia	Rita Kesselring, Basel
October 23	Seminarversammlung
October 30	Vegetable Cultivation in an Urban Setting: Thoughts, fears and strategies of gardeners in the city of Bobo-Dioulasso, Burkina Faso (MA project)	Nicolas Kessler, Basel
November 6	The Travail and Travels of Congolese Transnational Trader Women (Ambizione Project)	Lesley Braun, Basel
⇒ Friday, November 8, 5:30 pm, Rheinsprung 9 Old University	JJ Bachofen Lecture Speaking Through Houses: Interweaving Biography, Property and Personhood in Urban Zimbabwe	Amanda Hammar, Copenhagen
November 13	Between the imagined city and the practiced community An ethnographic case-study of the neighborhood's ovens in the medina of Tetouan (World Heritage Site, northern Morocco)	Elena Landmann, Strassbourg
November 20	New taste professionals: Catering training in secondary schools in Northern Ghana (PhD project)	Marta Rudnicka, Basel
November 27	Private cities: urbanisation and public goods in post-war Somalia	Tobias Hagmann, Roskilde
December 4	Between nowhere and now here: Perspectives of Ficgayo, Abidjan, Côte d'Ivoire.	Susann Ludwig, Leipzig
December 11	The Anglophone Crisis in Cameroon and its effect on the Mbororo community – a status report.	Michaela Pelican Köln
December 18	African Worlds in Gouangzhou (field course)	all participating students